

What is the Early College?

SECHS serves 9th-13th grades in Sampson County. Our school is a school of choice where students are expected to take college classes in addition to high school core classes. Students can graduate in four or five years with a high school diploma as well as an associate's degree and transferable college credits at no cost to them.

Why choose SECHS?

While SECHS offers many unique academic opportunities that traditional high schools cannot, our school has many of the same attributes of a traditional high school. Students can join clubs, participate in intramural sports, compete in high school competitions, attend prom, and many other things. Students at SECHS get a full high school experience along with an impressive start to their college career. Our amazing and supportive staff is ready to help all of our students succeed.
